

Morning Everyone— Mrs Dale again!! Well here we are, the final day of the Summer Term 2020, and what a term it’s been. The events of the last few months has had an impact of every single one of us in a way that nobody could ever have predicted. Your school family have missed you all so much, and let’s hope we can return to the new term, with maybe some bit of ‘normality’.

Keep an eye on your emails and texts messages over the holidays, as we will be keeping you up to date with return to school details as and when we know them....

So, a final “ta ta” from me until next time. I hope you all find time to do some special things with people, making memories, enjoying yourselves and having a good rest. Mrs Dale is hoping the sun returns again very soon!!

You will have all received an email yesterday with some details of our return to school details.

Also... take a look at our website, and enjoy listening to the leavers 2020 story....
